

Managing Mineral & Water Rights

Mineral and water rights can be valuable separate assets.

Best Practices:

- Confirm ownership through a title search.
- Record all deeds, leases, and agreements.
- Monitor and regulate any third-party extraction or usage.
- Understand local and state regulations for groundwater and mineral development.
- Seek legal counsel before selling or leasing these rights.